

BYLAW NO. 139

Bylaw of the Rural Municipality of Orkney No. 244, in the Province of Saskatchewan

RELATING TO THE PLANTING OF TREES OR SHRUBS OR THE PLACING OF STONE
PILES AND OTHER OBJECTS ADJACENT TO CERTAIN HIGHWAYS

The Municipal Council of the Rural Municipality of Orkney No. 244, Province of Saskatchewan, enacts as follows:

1. For the purposes of this Bylaw the expression:

(a) "municipality" means the Rural Municipality of Orkney No. 244 of Saskatchewan;

(b) "road" means any road allowance within the municipality other than:

- (i) a private road; or
- (ii) a provincial highway; or
- (iii) a road or highway within the following hamlets, to wit: East Broadway, Collacott, Pleasant Heights, Orcadia, York Lake, Fonehill and Mehan.

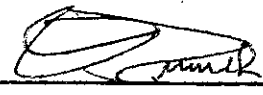

2. No person shall hereafter plant trees or shrubs or place stone piles, portable structures, machinery or other objects on private property within one hundred and fifty feet from the centre line of any road.

3. The Council may, by order, direct the owner of any private property upon which a tree or shrub has been planted, or a stone pile, portable structure, machinery or other object has been placed in contravention of the provisions of section 2 hereof, to remove the same within a time to be stated in such order.

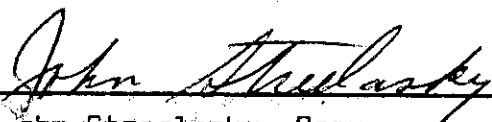

4. Where an owner of private property to whom an order for removal has been directed under the provisions of section 3 hereof, fails to comply with the order within the time as therein specified, the provisions of section 185 of the Rural Municipal Act, shall apply mutatis mutandis, and the Council may by resolution direct that such removal be carried out at the owner's expense by the agents or servants of the municipality, and the municipality may recover the expense of such removal by action or in like manner as municipal taxes are recoverable.

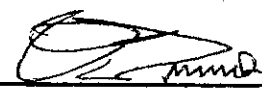

5. Any person who contravenes the provisions of section 2 hereof is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to the penalties imposed in the general Penalty Bylaw of the municipality.
